LISBOA - ADEGAMAE

AdegaMãe winery is in Torres Vedras, about 40km west of Lisbon, and 10km inland from the Atlantic Ocean. The winery is owned by the Riberalves Group, the largest cod fish distribution company in Portugal. It has approximately 40 hectares of vineyards with a production capacity of approximately 1.5 million liters per year. This new winery was built in 2010, and is equipped with the state-of-the-art machinery, the traditional wine making equipment, and a large collection of French and American oak barrels.

The AdegaMae vineyards are planted with both Portuguese and international grape varieties. The unique Atlantic influence, the topography of the land, the clay-limestone soils and the use of selected Portuguese and international grape in two separate vineyards enables AdegaMãe to produce unique wines showing a refreshing natural acidity and mineral characters.
