ALENTEJO – ANTA DOS LOBOS

Anta dos Lobos wines come from vineyards planted in Herdade da Cabeceira and Vale D'Anta located in Evora, Alentejo. These wines have been produced since 1999. The wines are produced based on sustainability practises which includes taking care of the land, the vineyard, and the wines by maintain the local grapes expression of the terroir. These wines have tremendous purity of fruit, seamless tannins, and a breathtaking freshness.

Current owners of the winery are a direct descendant of the first Baron and Marquis of Alvito, in the XV century with a coat of arms of the Lobos da Silveira. It was the first baron title given by King Afonso V of Portugal. This coat of arms has five wolves. Thus, the name of estate Anta dos Lobos.
