ALENTEJO – HERDADE DO ARREPIADO

Herdade do Arrepiado is in Sousel, about 40 km from Portalegre, in the Upper Alentejo. It is on the São Mamede wine route. The estate was built in the 19th century in the traditional architectural style of the Alentejo region. Antonio Atunnes, the owner, teamed up with winemaker António Maçanita to create an estate of 100 hectares with unique terroir characterised by steep slopes with schist soils and a lake that stands out amidst the vineyards and olive groves.

Herdade do Arrepiado wines will delight the drinkers with their fresh and energetic fruit profile, velvety tannins', and graceful acidity. Drinkers of Tradicao Reserva, Collection Reserva labels will be rewarded with an extra level of sophistication and elegance with structure and freshness. These wines have heightened excitement and demand.
