SETUBAL - HERDADE DO CEBOLAL

Isabel Captao and her son, Luis are two of Setubal's greatest winemakers. It is one of Setubal's best-kept secret, a small private wine estate, Herdade Do Cebolal. The vineyard is in a secluded forested area near the village of Vale das Éguas, about 20 kilometers from the historic city of Santiago do Cacém and 10 kilometers from the Atlantic coast.

Captao's produce some of the finest Bordeaux style Herdade do Cebolal wines. These are elegant yet powerful wines made in minuscule quantities. These wines' offer tannin structures, density of flavor and supreme elegance. These wines are sublime! Their commitment has resulted in fantastic wines.
