DOURO - QUINTA DA COSTA DO PINHAO

Quinta da Costa do Pinhão is in Douro's Pinhão Valley with stunning views of the surrounding vineyards on hills. The vineyards are facing south and range from 250-500m in altitude. The estate is classified as a grade 'A' vineyard which allows it to make pipes of Port. The vineyard at Peladosa are 90+ years old and used to produce exceptional wine with finesse, good structure and black cherry and blackcurrant fruit.

In 2007, the current owner Miguel Morais inherited his grandfather's estate and began to make table wines in 2014. He has a doctorate degree from Cambridge University and teaches engineering at a University Aveiro in Porto.
